GETMENTORING

What is Get Mentoring?

This highly interactive workshop will give you the tools and techniques to provide professional support to a wide variety of individuals and business colleagues. We understand that coaching and mentoring may not be part of your daily activities. However, we know that once you have attended this workshop and been given the resources and support, you will discover the satisfaction in helping others achieve their potential.

The event will also provide the opportunity for:

- networking with other businesses
- discussing funding available for Learning & Development

Who are THE Group & Agile Group?

THE Group and Agile Group have been working in partnership over many years to develop an effective approach to learning development, coaching and mentoring. Our reputation for quality training has been recognised recently through being the training providers for the winner of the National Training Awards 2011.
